NOTICE.

The branches required to be taught in the Vermont Academy of Medicine, are,

1st. Chemistry and the outlines of Natural Philosophy and Natural History.

2d. Anatomy and Physiology.
3d. Surgery, Obstetrics, and the Diseases of women and children.
4th. Materia-Medica and Pharmacy.
5th. Theory and Practice of Medicine.
6th. Medical Jurisprudence.

The course of instruction commences at the Medical College in Castleton, the first Thursday in September, annually, and continues fifteen weeks. There are five Lectures daily, through the whole term, and occasionally six, besides regular evening examinations. The Matriculation fee, is $3; the fee for all the courses $40; and the graduation fee $12.

In order to be entitled to a recommendation by the Faculty, for a degree, the Candidate must have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and have sustained a good moral character—must have studied the different branches of medicine, either in some medical institution, or with some respectable physician and surgeon, for at least three years, including the lecture terms—must have diligently attended two full courses of lectures, on all the several branches, either at this, or some other incorporated institution, the last of which must have been at this—must have passed a satisfactory examination before the Faculty and Delegates from the Vermont Medical Society, and have delivered and defended a written dissertation on some medical subject, to the approbation of the Faculty and Delegates; must have obtained certificates from the Treasurer, that he has paid into the treasury the graduation fee, and either paid, or secured to be paid the prescribed lecture fees.

Having complied with these terms, and been recommended to the corporations, both of the Vermont Academy of Medicine, and of Middlebury College, the Candidate shall be entitled to the Degree of Doctor of Medicine, on a major vote of both corporations, unless some sufficient reason appears, why he should not be admitted to such honour; and said degree shall be conferred, either at the annual Commencement of the Vermont Academy in Castleton, or at that of Middlebury College, at the choice of the Candidate.

The price of board in Castleton, including room-rent, fuel, and washing, varies from $1 25, to $2 a week.

☞E. C.—East College; W. C. West College.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

To be admitted to the Freshman Class, the candidate must be thoroughly acquainted with the grammar of the Latin and Greek languages, and be able to construe and parse any portion of the following books, viz :—Virgil, the Greek Testament, Cicero's Select Orations, and Dalzel's Collectanea Græca Minora. He must likewise be able to translate English into Latin correctly ; and possess a knowledge of Geography and Arithmetick, including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, with the doctrine of Roots and Powers.

N. B. The time appointed for examination, is the day preceding the annual Commencement. Applicants from a distance, however, may be examined at the close of the ensuing vacation.

For admission to an advanced standing, the candidate, in addition to the requisites for the Freshman Class, must be acquainted with the studies pursued by the Class, wich he wishes to join.

It is desirable that those youth, who are studying with a view to enter this College, should use the particular books here prescribed. In extraordinary cases, however, an equivalent knowledge of other classicks will be admitted as a substitute for partial deficiences.

No scholar from another College can be admitted without examination ; nor can any such applicant be admitted to examination, without producing from the presiding officer, a certificate of his good standing and regular dismission.

N. B. In all cases, a bond for the payment of the College bills, is required.
